

We are seeking an Director of Application Development to join our team! You will manage and mentor skilled development teams delivering an array of SaaS based applications serving the healthcare vertical.

Responsibilities:

- Lead, manage and mentor development teams
- Assist in strategic planning and risk analysis
- Identify information system needs and establish priorities for system upgrades
- Establish timelines and deliverable dates to meet deadlines and deliver products on time
- Prepare project plans & schedules for application development, enhancements & maintenance
- Collaborate with peer teams to bring products to market and delivering additional features at a rapid pace

Qualifications:

- 8+ years leading successful application development teams
- 6+ years of senior level experience developing complex web-based applications
- Experience building solutions using AWS technologies
- Proven track record of leading high performing team of application developers
- Ability to prioritize and multitask
- Deadline and detail-oriented